SUBJECT: Clearance of Determination Order for Refugee Assistance Act

On June 28, 1962 the President signed PL 87-510 the Refugee Assistance Act of 1962 which provides authority for the continuation of existing United States refugee programs and the provision of aid in other refugee situations now developing.

In order that the Department may proceed immediately to submit appropriation requests to implement this Act, the President must sign a determination order indicating which refugee situations are in the national interest.

The attached determination order and related papers are submitted to you for your urgent review and concurrence or suggestions for changes.
